Company objective and policy

The investment objective of the VT Teviot UK Smaller Companies Fund is to achieve a total return (of growth and income, after fees) greater than the Benchmark Index over the long term. The Benchmark Index is the Numis Smaller Companies Index (including AIM but excluding investment Companies).

The Fund will seek to achieve its investment objective by investing in a diversified portfolio of companies which shall primarily consist of small UK quoted companies. Small companies are those having a market capitalisation, at the time of purchase, equal to or lower than the largest company in the Numis Smaller Companies Index (including AIM but excluding investment companies).

The investments held by the Fund will be primarily in companies domiciled, incorporated or having a significant part of their business in the UK.

The Manager actively manages the portfolio in order to achieve the objective and will not be restricted in respect of investments by industrial sectors.

In seeking investments the approach will be fundamental in nature: rigorous financial analysis of prospective and existing investments and regular contact with the management of these companies. The emphasis within the portfolio will reflect the desire to invest in companies whose shares represent relatively attractive value within the given stockmarket context.

The Fund's eligible markets, as defined in COLL, include the Official List of the London Stock Exchange plc ("LSE") and the Alternative Investment Market ("AIM") of the LSE. The Fund's base currency is Pounds Sterling.

The Fund will not invest in any immovable property or tangible movable property.

In addition to equities, the asset classes in which the Fund may invest includes transferable securities, units in collective investment schemes, money-market instruments, cash and near cash and deposits to the extent permitted for UCITS schemes pursuant to the rules in COLL and in accordance with the Fund's investment powers as set out in the Prospectus.

As indicated above, the Fund aims to achieve a total return over the longer term. Nevertheless capital is in fact at risk and there is no guarantee that a total return will be achieved over that specific, or any, time period.

Performance Benchmark

The performance benchmark is the Numis Smaller Companies Index (including AIM but excluding investment companies).

Derivatives

The Fund may hold derivatives for efficient portfolio management purposes. It is not intended that the use of derivatives for efficient portfolio management purposes will increase the risk profile of the Fund.

Introduction

Teviot Partners launched the VT Teviot UK Smaller Companies Fund in August 2017 and we are now approaching the third anniversary since launch. Our thesis when we launched the Fund centred on the importance of liquidity in an illiquid asset class. A smaller unit size of investment allows the manager to execute investment decisions efficiently, with less impact on price; and it confers greater flexibility in an ever-changing investment landscape.

Our portfolio should reflect the best value opportunities within our universe at the current time without the drag of legacy positions. A further advantage of being relatively small is that we can consider investing in a broader range of smaller companies within our universe and hold positions of a size that can be meaningful to returns without taking large ownership positions that limit flexibility.

Nearly three years into the life of the Fund, the advantages of being small and having a liquidity advantage have been reflected in our performance. Many of the investment challenges faced over the last three years could not have been predicted when we started, not least the Covid-19 pandemic, but our relative liquidity advantage has allowed us respond positively to a volatile and uncertain environment.

The pandemic has required Teviot Partners and our outsourced partners to adapt to new ways of working. This has been achieved successfully, proving the resilience of our remote working plans. We would go further and suggest that communication with investee companies and our investors has become more efficient as we all adjust to the new normal.

Performance

In the six-month period to 30th June 2020, the Fund generated a return of -21.5% compared with a return of -19.8% from the Numis Smaller Companies Index (excluding Investment Companies, including AIM). Cumulatively since launch, the Fund has generated a return of +14.7% compared to the benchmark index return of -12.3%.

Events in the period were dominated by the Covid-19 pandemic. In a short period of time the global economic environment radically changed, altering the perspective of every household and every company. The heightened uncertainty ripped through Markets and by mid-March our benchmark index had fallen 41% in the space of four weeks. Most companies were forced to withdraw guidance and the majority suspended dividend payments in order to conserve cash.

The unprecedented levels of support from governments and central banks fostered the recovery in Markets. However, the profile of recovery was distinctly polarised in favour of growth-orientated capital. It was understandable that Markets searched for beneficiaries of the crisis with the technology and healthcare space to the fore. The unprecedented conditions will accelerate structural change in many parts of the economy that will challenge traditional business models that are unable to adapt.

In contrast, value and income strategies were challenged as traditional earnings and dividend metrics were undermined in the short term. Teviot Partners invests with a value style and faced considerable headwinds in the period. The degree of underperformance relative to the benchmark was limited by our ability to capitalise on the volatility and reposition the portfolio to reflect the new environment. In late May and early June, the Fund's relative returns picked up markedly but overall it was insufficient to offset the headwinds in March and early May. Our monthly factsheets identify the stock specific contributions to performance. M&A activity was generally subdued with only two portfolio companies taken over in the period.

Income

The Fund declared an interim distribution (Net Accumulation) of 0.4435p in comparison to 1.7780p in the prior year. This reduction in income relates to the suspension of dividends as we referred to earlier. For most companies this was a prudent step in the face of elevated uncertainty. The prospects for dividends to recover will be a function of how quickly earnings recover and the degree of leverage on balance sheets. In both regards, we believe the portfolio is well placed to see portfolio income begin to recover.

Outlook

The dramatic and largely unforeseen events of this period have reverberated across all geographies and all sectors. The risk of further waves of infection and the risks as economies are weaned off government support remain in vivid focus. A backdrop of rising global tensions between the West and China as well as the uncertainty of any Brexit settlement add further to the list of concerns.

Set against this, there is a political will to support economies. So long as there is an appetite to fund government borrowing then politicians appear willing to do whatever it takes to stimulate recovery. If, as seems likely, recovery takes hold then it is likely to permeate into a much broader group of companies than those favoured in the first half of the year. While yields remain low, it is probable that equities continue to find support.

The prospects for investing in UK small companies remain exciting. In 2020, we are reflecting on a further polarisation between growth and value. In 2019, we observed the aversion to smaller constituents on fears of liquidity. Teviot Partners has been investing against a background that could scarcely be more hostile to its strategy. However, this throws up opportunities and across a broad investment universe we are confident of navigating a path that identifies mis-priced assets that are being overlooked by the mainstream due to their size or failure to value their prospects.
